Education in the 21st Century

The Power of Black History
“The conditions of today have been determined by what has taken place in the past, and in a careful study of history we may see more clearly the great theatre of events in which the Negro has played a part” (Woodson, 1933, p. 9).

“There would be no lynching if it did not start in the school room” (Woodson, 1933, p. 3).
The Untold History: The Origin of Blackness

Jane H. Galante Concert Series: Core Ensemble with Shinnerrie Jackson

Sunday, February 28, 2021 @ 3:00 pm

The Core Ensemble performs the chamber music theatre work "Ain't I a Woman!," celebrating the life and times of four powerful African American women: renowned novelist and anthropologist Zora Neale Hurston, ex-slave and fiery abolitionist Sojourner Truth, exuberant folk artist Clementine Hunter and fervent civil-rights worker Fannie Lou Hamer. The musical score is drawn from the heartfelt spirituals and blues of the Deep South, the urban vitality of the Jazz Age, and contemporary concert music by African Americans. "Ain't I a Woman!" is a joyful exploration of the trials and triumphs of four passionate and accomplished women.
